To whom it may concern,

Please accept this letter and the attached resume as my expression of interest for the role of Junior/Intermediate Frontend Developer as advertised on seek. I believe that I have a lot to offer your company in terms of my skills, experience and attitude, and I am excited about the prospect of working with you.

In my current role as a subcontractor I have developed numerous web-based applications, following the projects through early design to coding under the direction of the Managing Director. Each project has required the dynamic use of my programming experience as well as effective and constant communication to deliver excellent results within customer-set time frames. I am proficient in HTML, CSS and SASS as a pre-processor, and I have a good working knowledge of JavaScript/JQuery, node.js, Gulp, and Webpack, as well as having some experience with PHP and Wordpress. I endeavour to produce websites that are cutting-edge, user-friendly and well-designed, while representing the values and aesthetic of each customer. My abilities to produce excellent code, think creatively and flexibly, communicate clearly, problem solve and collaborate with a team has led to company successes and satisfied customers.

Additionally, I feel I am a good fit for this position due to my passion for web development and my desire to learn more about web technologies. I am committed to continuous learning and staying up-to-date with technological advancements and industry standards. My years of work experience in multiple fields have proven my dedication to hard work, enthusiasm and flexibility. With these qualities I feel I will make an exceptional candidate for the Junior/Intermediate Web Developer position. I have enclosed my resume for further information on my skills and experience.

I look forward to hearing from you and welcome any further enquiries.

Sincerely,

Asher Alley
